

School Visits

As a former educator, I know how special Florida's students are to the future of the state. It is always a pleasure to return to the classroom whenever possible to speak with students about their futures and educators about their needs. If you would like for me to speak to your class or school, please contact one of my offices or fill out and invite request form .

Tour Washington, D.C.

A visit to the nation's capital is a great educational opportunity for any student, young or old. If you, your family, or class are planning on visiting Washington, D.C. my office would gladly set up a tour of the U.S. Capitol Building for you. Part of our job here in D.C. is to ensure that your visit here is a special one. If you would like to schedule a tour of the Capitol Building please fill out this online form .

For more information on what Washington, D.C. has to offer, you can consult my guide to the city \(PDF\) . It contains information regarding how to get around the city, interesting places to eat, as well as where to find some of the city's best museums.

Military Academy Nominations

If you are in the 22nd District and wish to attend a military academy and are seeking an nomination, that information can be found here .

Paying for College

The opportunity to attend college can be life changing, but finding ways to afford it can sometimes feel like a daunting task. On the federal level, FAFSA and the Office of Federal Student Aid can be great resources.

The Florida Office of Student Financial Assistance contains information on student loans as well as grants and scholarships.

For information on the G.I. Bill, please visit its site at the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Good luck!

Both my staff and I wish you the best in all your educational pursuits. Make sure to check back occasionally to this site for more helpful links as they become available.
